Day 2 : Explore Scenic Views of Araku Travel Package

❑ This is Day 2 of your Vizag-Araku tour, blending a heritage rail ride with offbeat waterfalls, tribal stories, and mountain breezes.

Kickstart the day with the iconic Vizag to Araku train ride — an experience through tunnels, bridges, and Eastern Ghat landscapes. If rail tickets aren't confirmed, a scenic road transfer through Ananthagiri will ensure no moment is missed. Spend the day exploring ancient caves, tribal-crafted plantations, and serene viewpoints before retiring into your hill resort hideaway.

Destination	Highlights
Train Ride to Araku (4.7❑) Departs ~6:50 AM	A vintage hill train journey cutting through 50+ tunnels and forest views. Ideal for photographers and nature lovers. Tip: Tickets must be booked early; seats fill fast. Pack snacks and water for comfort.
❑ No train? No problem — drive through winding forest roads with strategic scenic halts.
Borra Caves (4.5❑) 10:00 AM - 5:00 PM	Jaw-dropping cave chambers lit dramatically to reveal their age-old rock formations and folklore. Popular for both geology and mythology buffs. Tip: Photogenic interiors; carry a wide lens and wear comfortable footwear.
Katiki Waterfalls (4.4❑) Open till 5:30 PM Private Jeep + Trek Required	A misty, off-road gem hidden in the forest. Reached via jeep and a moderate jungle trek, it's perfect for those craving raw nature. Tip: Hire jeeps at base (~₹1200-1500). Light trail shoes recommended.
Tribal Coffee Estates (4.6❑) All Day Access	Walk amid green slopes where tribal communities harvest and process Araku's famed beans. Engage with locals, sip fresh brew, and buy organic coffee. Tip: Look for co-op stores for fair trade purchases.
Galikonda View Point (4.4❑) Accessible till Sunset	A breezy hilltop spot perfect for soaking in Araku's topography. Watch birds soar below and valleys stretch endlessly. Tip: Visit around golden hour for best lighting and minimal crowds.

Evening Comfort: Check in to your hotel/ resort in Araku. Let the quiet rustle of trees and mountain air welcome you to a relaxed evening in nature's lap.
